

Communications Platform

Empowering you to communicate effectively with users

Create professional looking web pages

Keep your site up to date easily

Automatically email users with new items of content

To find out more about Communications Platform and to arrange a demo, go to www.webbased.co.uk

About Communications Platform

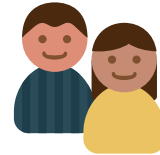

Communications platform is a complete content management and communication solution. The tool allows organisations including local authorities and multi-academy trusts to easily create and maintain websites and manage subscriber communications efficiently.

A website creation and management tool enabling you to easily add and update content, news and posts from wherever you are

A flexible platform that helps you create, automate, and send emails to groups of users

Ability to upload and share documents easily and manage access

Benefits of Communications Platform

Build a website that meets your needs

We work with you to ensure your vision, user-experience requirements and brand guidelines are realised

Customise and maintain your website easily

Content channels allow administrators to create, publish and manage content

Communicate effectively

Create adaptable and automated e-newsletters

Make it easy to search for content

The system includes a simple keyword search

Facilitate user interaction

Easy-to-manage forums and blogs

Enable flexible working

Easily access your administrative system on the go

Contact us today to find out more about Communications Platform and to arrange a demo:

01752 797131 • hello@webbased.co.uk • www.webbased.co.uk